IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE FOR RAJASTHAN AT JAIPUR BENCH, JAIPUR

ORDER

S.B.CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO.4932/2003.

Sajid Khan.

VERSUS

District Judge, Tonk & Another.

05.12.2006.

HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE DALIP SINGH

Mr.H.P.Singh, for the petitioner.
Mr.S.C.Gupta, for the respondents.

*****

This writ petition has been filed challenging the order passed by the learned trial court dated 17.07.2003 whereby the document (Annexure-1) has been held to be inadmissible by the learned trial court.

At this stage, I am not inclined to go into the merits of the questions which have been raised in the writ petition. Suffice it to say, the in case the suit of the petitioner-plaintiff is dismissed, the petitioner would be at liberty to raise all these grounds before the learned appellate court and the learned appellate court would decide the questions in accordance with law.

In view of the above, the writ petition is dismissed. However, the dismissal of this writ petition would not amount to res judicata on the questions which have been raised by the petitioner in this writ petition.

Consequently, the writ petition as well as the stay application and the application under Article 226(3) of the Constitution of India stand disposed of.
